

PROFILE

I am a long-time newspaper, magazine, and online journalist who taught journalism for more than 20 years at universities in five countries. I am also the author of seven books, including Pacific Press (2001), Red Line, Blue Line, Bottom Line (2004), Asper Nation (2007), Greatly Exaggerated (2014), The News We Deserve (2016), Re-examining the UK Newspaper Industry (2022), and The Postmedia Effect (2023). I am a columnist on media issues for Canadian Dimension.

CONTACT

#204-385 Davis Road
Ladysmith, B.C.
V9G 2B5

PHONE:
778-384-1952

WEBSITE:
www.marcedge.com

EMAIL:
mail@marcedge.com

HOBBIES

Sailing
Fantasy hockey
Traveling

MARC EDGE

JOURNALIST, AUTHOR, EDUCATOR

EDUCATION

Ohio University

1997-2001

Ph.D. (Mass Communication)

- First-place winner of the 2002 dissertation award of the American Journalism Historians Association

Michigan State University

1982

Master of Labor and Industrial Relations

- Participant, London Reporting Program

Simon Fraser University

1973-77

B.A. (Commerce)

- Editor, The Peak, Fall 1976

WORK EXPERIENCE

Staff journalist

1977-79

Calgary Herald. Financial Pages Editor, Makeup Editor, Assistant Foreign Editor, Features Editor.

1979-1993

Vancouver Province. Legal Affairs Reporter, Education Reporter, Assistant City Editor, Real Estate Reporter, Business Reporter.

Journalism educator

1998-2020

Taught at universities in five countries, including Singapore (2001-04), Fiji (2011-12), and Malta (2017-20).

Freelance journalist

1978-2022

Contributing Writer, Hockey magazine, 1978-82; Editor, Hashmarks (B.C. Lions), 1979, 1984; Vancouver correspondent, The National (Canadian Bar Association), 1993-2001; writer, The Tyee, 2006-19; writer, guest editor, Monitor (Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives), 2016-19; columnist, Canadian Dimension, 2021-